

Press release – May 2006

The 2006/07 edition of the Guide to French Conference Towns is now available.

The 2006/07 edition of the Guide to French Conference Towns is now available. It presents the venue of the 48 France Congrès member towns*.

This bilingual English/French guide is meant for meeting industry professionals. This illustrated guide gives a general presentation of each town: access, characteristics, economic environment, universities and research centres, main events, sports and leisure, references, capacity of meeting rooms and hotels, contacts. It comes with a companion CD-Rom giving information on the towns' meeting venues (convention centres, exhibition halls, hotels, etc.) and detailed information on the capacity of each meeting room according to the chosen layout (classroom, conference, committee, banquet, cocktail).

Get your free 2006/07 edition of the Guide to French Conference Towns online at www.france-congres.org in the About France Congrès>What we do section, or send us an email info@france-congres.org .

The 48 member towns of France Congrès are:

Aix-en-Provence, Aix-les-Bains, Amiens, Angers, Antibes/Juan-les-Pins, Arcachon, Besançon, Biarritz, Bordeaux, Caen, Cannes, Chamonix, Deauville, Dijon, Dunkerque, Evian, Grenoble, La Baule, La Grande Motte, La Rochelle, Le Mans, Le Touquet, Les Sables d'Olonne, Lille, Lyon, Marseille, Martinique, Metz, Montpellier, Mulhouse, Nancy, Nantes, Nice, Nîmes, Paris, Pau, Poitiers, Reims, Saint-Denis-de-la-Réunion, Saint-Etienne, Saint-Malo, Saint-Raphaël, Strasbourg, Toulouse, Tours, Val d'Isère, Vichy, Vittel

Contact

Annick Labat, France Congrès
19 rue de Penthièvre 75008 Paris
Tel. : 01.42.65.10.01 – Fax : 01.42.65.10.02
daphnee.ponticelli@france-congres.org